

ABORTION IS MURDER

If you think God Failed to inform us as to when the soul enters into life, then speculate on the following passages from the Old Testament: Jeremiah 1, 5, "before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you came to birth I consecrated you." Job 31, 15: "God shaped us all within our mother." Jeremiah and Job credited God with our creation in the womb.

To be in sin indicates the presence of a soul. According to the New Testament, Jesus is conceived at once. He did not become Jesus, a week, a month, or many months later. He is Jesus at once (you are you at once).

Mary the mother of Jesus immediately goes to Elizabeth who is six months pregnant. Elizabeth rejoices in the presence of her Lord. Even though Mary is pregnant only a matter of days. In unmistakable terms the bible proves both Life and Soul present at (as David said) THE MOMENT OF CONCEPTION.

Abortion is MURDER. The right to life comes directly from GOD.

Do not fight deformity by deforming your soul.

Poverty is no license to kill your son or daughter in the womb.

Doctors who perform abortions are paid Assassins.

In the words of Saint Paul, "You are not your own property. You have been bought and paid for. That is why you should use your body for the Glory of God." Cor. 6,20.

WHEN DOES HUMAN LIFE REALLY BEGIN?

"The birth of a human life really occurs at the moment the mother's egg cell is fertilized by one of the father's sperm cells."

LIFE MAGAZINE: Series, "Drama of Life Before Birth," April, 1965

"Medical authorities have long recognized that a child is in existence from the moment of conception."

Smith vs. Brennan, N.J. Supreme Court, 1960

"It is now of unquestionable certainty that a human being comes into existence precisely at the moment when the sperm combines with the egg. How do we know this? From everything we know about genetics. When the sperm and egg nuclei unite, all of the characteristics, such as color of the eyes, hair, skin, that make a unique personality, are laid down determinatively."

Herbert Ratner, M.D., REPORT, April, 1966

"From the moment a baby is conceived, it bears the indelible stamp of a separate, distinct personality, an individual different from all other individuals. . . .

"By the third month of pregnancy, he has developed from the first single cell of life into a perfectly-formed little creature about the size of his father's thumb."

H. M. I. Liley, M.D., Fetologist,
MODERN MOTHERHOOD, 1967

"An abortion requires an operation. It kills the life of a baby after it has begun. It is dangerous to your life and health. It may make you sterile so that when you want a child you cannot have it. Birth control merely postpones the beginning of life."

Planned Parenthood Pamphlet, 1963

HOW DOES THE LAW REGARD THE UNBORN CHILD?

"... the unborn child is entitled to the law's protection."

Fitkin vs. Anderson, New Jersey Supreme Court, 1956

"In many states the courts have accepted the principle that the unborn child is a person. The right of the unborn child to recover damages for pre-natal injuries has been acknowledged in a number of cases."

Russel Shaw, ABORTION ON DEMAND, 1969

"If abortion results in the death of an innocent human being . . . then abortion is neither a strictly private matter nor the sole concern of a particular religious sect."

Robert M. Byrn, Professor at Law, Fordham University.

"The child, by reason of his physical and mental immaturity, needs special safeguards and care, including appropriate legal protection, before as well as after birth."

U.N. Declaration on Rights of the Child

"If Jeffrey could have been asked as to whether his life should be snuffed out before his full term of gestation could run its course, our felt intuition of human nature tells us he would almost surely choose life with defects against no life at all . . . the right to life is inalienable in our society . . . the sanctity of the single human life is the decisive factor. . . ."

Gleitman vs. Cosgrove, New Jersey Supreme Court, 1967.

Crisis in American Education has left its mark in the generation of new slogans in a wide range of activities resulting in illegal changes in government, social change, consummated through violence and ultimately accompanied by the Jewish ideological concept which reflects invariably the alterations in the political fabric. Force and violence are not isolated phenomena, they are too vitally connected with Protocols of The Learned Elders of Zion reflected in the French and the Russian revolutions, and now aimed at the heart of Christian America.

Fractionalizing the American society, today, in the language of oppression, is the minority psychology for setting any group apart from the whole, a typical Marxist technique that spawns the climate to disintegrate all social structure. The intelligence pattern behind the youth rebellion cannot be equated with the 'high jinx' of other years when 'goldfish swallowing' and 'panty raids' appeared without direction and purpose. The side-effects of these escapades was anarchistic phenomenon; today they are the rampages that leave in their wake rapine, smoking ruins, closed schools and scores maimed and dead. These swelling revolts grow to such proportions that the lethal assault has a 'dramatic effect' on the disciples of destruction. Submissively subordinated, this human-tremor has 'hammered and sickled' on the repetitive revolutionary course, leaving no nation or country unaffected in the production of Youth Revolt.

Gus Hall (Halberg) head of the Communist Party U.S.A. stated on January 20, 1961 "... it is essential to reach not only the unorganized masses; what is required is the creation of a mass grassroots movement for peace and disarmament involving literally millions of Americans. It is important to bring everyone — men, women, youth, and yes, even children into the struggle." ... Thus, Headstart, Vista, Peace Corps, The Now Prophets, and the ramifications of HEW in the field of public education are part and parcel in league with communist party objectives. Note: The Now Prophets idea originated with the Women's Society of Service and Wesleyan Service Guild, originating in the PROGRAM RESOURCE BOOK 1969. Skits and pictures of women cadres typify the NOW PROGRAM of the 1970 Woman's Day demonstrations.

Hand-picking is prologue for the Communist-Zionist planners who read into stacked opinions the malleable ingredients that promote the communist idea. Felix Frankfurter, the New Deal legal progenitor, staffed his handpicked students from Harvard into every key legal post in the Federal Government; in effect, he practically controlled the writing and the interpretation of new legislative measures. Frankfurter actually made the "guideline" routine with a clear vision for the desired future in the draft for the contours of the revolution. Beginning his law tenure at Harvard in 1914, he was ready when the moment came for him to step into position to replace the 'good guys' with the 'bad guys' . . . those who were inducted as the elite of the chosen received instruction at the Frankfurter home on Sunday evening 'cook-outs', where the discussion on Law and Life would allow Frankfurter to determine a classification for their future career in Gov-

SHOULD NOT ABORTIONS BE ALLOWED FOR SUCH THINGS AS RAPE, DEFORMED CHILDREN, OR THE MOTHER'S MENTAL OR PHYSICAL HEALTH?

"Anyone who performs a therapeutic abortion is either ignorant of modern medical methods of treating the complications of pregnancy or is unwilling to take time to use them."

R. J. Heffernan, M.D., Tufts University. Speaking to Congress of American College of Surgeons, 1951.

"It is practically impossible . . . to predict when an abortion will not be more detrimental to the mental health than the carrying of the child to birth."

Theodore Litz, M.D., Yale University
Psychiatrist

"What this bill says is that those who are malformed or abnormal have no reason to be part of our society. If we are prepared to say that a life should not come into this world malformed or abnormal, then tomorrow we should be prepared to say that a life already in this world which becomes malformed or abnormal should not be permitted to live."

N.Y. Assemblyman Martin Ginsberg
Speaking against a "liberalized" bill, April, 1969

"So far, we have seen, in broad outline, something of the legal aspects of rape. Statutory rape, as a justification for abortion, is equivalent to voluntary abortion for a large segment of the fertile female population, but its determination, at least at the pregnancy stage, is not difficult, whatever the moral and social problems may be. Forcible rape, on the other hand, in addition to similar moral and social problems, has serious fact-finding ones: the law is complicated; the evidence is elusive and contradictory; and the effects of a bad decision are devastating."

"Would I be so heartless as to say that it has been worthwhile for my child to be born retarded? Certainly not, but I am saying that even though gravely retarded it has been worthwhile for her to have lived, . . . I would not add the weight of choice to kill rather than to let live. A retarded child, a handicapped person, brings its own gift to life, even to the life of normal human beings."

Pearl Buck, Foreword, THE TERRIBLE CHOICE, THE ABORTION DILEMMA, Apr. 1968

ernment. Each year two honor graduates were assigned, largely on Frankfurter's recommendation, as secretaries to the liberal Supreme Court Justices Louis D. Brandeis and Oliver Wendell Holmes. In the year 1933, under the 'rigged deal' Dean G. Acheson, a Brandeis secretary was upgraded to Under-Secretary of the U.S. Treasury, and later advanced to the State Department.

Frankfurter produced David Lilienthal for the TVA; Jerome L. Frank for the Agriculture Dept.; Nathan R. Margold for the Dept. of the Interior; and sent to the Dept. of Labor, Charles E. Wyzanski Jr., a former trustee of the Ford Foundation, and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. In those days it was said — with apparent good reason — that no New Deal department nor agency would hire a lawyer unless he was on Frankfurter's "White List." One of his most capable permeators was Anna Rosenberg who served as Under-Secretary to George Marshall in the Department of Defense. While serving in this capacity she loaded Federal Agencies and the Armed Services with an estimated one million workers from the ranks of the World War II refugees, and made integration mandatory in the Armed Services.

In the COLLECTED WORKS OF LENIN, Vol. II, pp 21-22, we read, "Today we are faced with the task of organizing and supporting students to demonstrate . . . we must take advantage of the strained political situation; in order to capitalize on public indignation, a boycott, demonstration, or a strike might be organized. Only communists, thus trained in action could, at a strategic moment issue the call for a decisive battle."
